Reckoning with Restorative Justice Leanne Trapedo Sims, 2023-09-18 In Reckoning with Restorative Justice Leanne Trapedo Sims explores the experiences of women who are incarcerated at the Women's Community Correctional Center the only women's prison in the state of Hawai'i. Adopting a decolonial and pro-abolitionist lens she focuses particularly on women's participation in the Kailua Prison Writing Project and its accompanying Prison Monologues program. Trapedo Sims argues that while the writing project served as a vital resource for the inside women it also remained deeply embedded within carceral logics at the institutional state and federal levels. She foregrounds different aspects of these programs such as the classroom spaces and the dynamics that emerged between performers and audiences in the Prison Monologues. Blending ethnography literary studies psychological analysis and criminal justice critique Trapedo Sims centers the often overlooked stories of incarcerated Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander women in Hawai'i in ways that resound with the broader American narrative the disproportionate incarceration of people of color in the prison industrial complex.

Drawing from Life Jane Tolmie, 2013-11-01 Autobiography has seen enormous expansions and challenges over the past decades. One of these expansions has been in comics and it is an expansion that pushes back against any postmodern notion of the death of the author subject while also demanding new approaches from critics. Drawing from Life: Memory and Subjectivity in Comic Art is a collection of essays about autobiography semi-autobiography fictionalized autobiography memory and self-narration in sequential art or comics. Contributors come from a range of academic backgrounds including English American studies comparative literature gender studies art history and cultural studies. The book engages with well-known figures such as Art Spiegelman Marjane Satrapi and Alison Bechdel with cult status figures such as Martin Vaughn James and with lesser-known works by artists such as Frédéric Boilet. Negotiations between artist/writer/body and drawn/written/text raise questions of how comics construct identity and are read and perceived requiring a critical turn towards theorizing the comics viewer. At stake in comic memoir and semi-autobiography is embodiment. Remembering a scene with the intent of rendering it in sequential art requires nonlinear thinking and engagement with physicality. Who was in the room and where? What was worn? Who spoke first? What images dominated the encounter? Did anybody smile? Man or mouse? Unhinged from the summary paragraph the comics artist must confront the fact of the flesh or the corporeal world and they do so with fascinating results.
