A Theology of Preaching and Dialectic Aaron P. Edwards, 2018-07-12 How does the preacher know what God might say now based upon the many things God said then Preachers and theologians throughout Christian history have grappled with Scripture s diverse emphases alongside the urgent task of declaring the authoritative Word of God in the contemporary pulpit Aaron Edwards offers a new way of engaging with this problem by exploring the theological relationship between biblical dialectics and heraldic proclamation Edwards highlights the theological necessity of dialectical variety without forfeiting assertiveness in the prophetic moment of preaching A vast array of key voices from the theological tradition are drawn upon including Augustine Aquinas Eckhart Luther Calvin Hegel Kierkegaard Chesterton Barth Bultmann Tillich Ebeling and others to navigate the connection between Scriptural unity clarity and paradoxical plurivocality leading to a nuanced account of dialectic Applying this to the homiletically neglected concept of heraldic confidence in preaching Edwards examines the theological possibility of preaching in light of dialectical complexity via its prophetic dimension He shows how the uniquely revelatory relationship of Word and Spirit enables Scriptural illumination prophetic discernment and dialectical decisiveness in the momentary encounter which undergirds all Christian proclamation

Marketing and Christian Proclamation in Theological Perspective Emily Beth Hill, 2021-06-28 In today's market driven world the contemporary church faces pressing questions as it continues to be formed by the powerful forces of neoliberal capitalism This book builds on theological examinations of capitalism and consumerism to develop a theology of marketing that addresses two key questions First even though church marketing seems to help churches grow amidst a climate of declining church affiliation should the church use it Second considering the church's indistinguishability from culture in relation to consumption how should Christians relate to material goods To address these questions Emily Beth Hill develops a framework that draws on the concrete practices of marketing such as focus groups big data branding and advertising and the trajectory of their use over time along with Martin Luther's theology of the Word Combining Martin Luther's pro me for me theology with marketing concepts Hill shows that while marketing and the gospel have formal pro me similarities materially they are quite different marketing operates as a word of law distinct from the effective liberating word of the gospel proclaimed for us and thus the two produce different human identities While existing examinations of capitalism primarily rely on theologies and discourses of desire Hill reveals that a theology of the Word illuminates a fruitful new area for reflection on how the church can resist the deformations of capitalism

Theology of the New Testament Udo Schnelle, 2009-11 For a few decades jet packs seemed to be everywhere on Gilligan's Island Lost in Space Thunderball and even the opening ceremony of the 1984 Olympics Inventors promised we'd all be flying with them now enabling us to zoom around effortlessly in the sky and getting us to work without traffic jams and trains What happened to the jet pack In The Great American Jet Pack Steve Lehto gives us the definitive history of this and related devices explaining how the technology arose how it works and why we don't have them in our garages today These individual lift devices as they were blandly labeled by the government men who financed much of their development answered man's desire to simply step outside and take flight No runways no wings no pilot's license were required Soaring through the air with the wind in your face and landing anywhere there was room to stand could this be done Yes it could be and it was But the jet pack was perhaps the most overpromised technology of all time From the rocket belt to the jet belt to the flying platform and all the way to Yves Rossy's 21st century free flights using a jet powered wing this book profiles the inventors and pilots the hucksters and cheats the businessmen and soldiers who were involved with these machines And it finally tells a great American story of a technology whose promise may one day yet come to fruition

The Perfect Religion, A Beacon to the True Kingdom of God Phillip Cimei, 2019-01-23 Is there such a thing as a perfect religion If so then why are there over 34 000 branches of the Christian faith If there is one true body of believers why do some feel like the following I need to wander around from church to church because I'm not satisfied I'm afraid if I make a mistake I'm hell bound I'm stuck in a lukewarm church with members who are satisfied with a mediocre religious life I'm tired of that one doctrinal point that defines my church and excludes other Christians I'm not sure if what the preacher is teaching is correct but I'm afraid to buck the system The author having embraced all of these distressing feelings takes the reader on an unprecedented treasure hunt to find that illusive perfect religion And after fifty years of digging he might have hit the mother lode the Sermon on the Mount Will it satisfy those still searching for the truth Will it reaffirm the faith of those who have found the treasure Will this truth set those shackled to a confused state free The author addresses the problem head on He weaves through the maze of controversy theological mumbo jumbo and religious opinions to give answers to why there is so much division in the church and why so many wandering souls are searching if not in their heart from church to church He uses captivating illustrations a girl with a moose a boy ravaged with a flesh eating disease and a vulture eyeballing a starving child to bring to life Christ's quest to show those wandering souls the way Are you brave enough to take the journey Will I truly find God you ask I love those who love Me and those who seek Me diligently will find Me Prov 8 17
