The Postcolonial Orient Vasant Kaiwar,2014-05-08 In The Postcolonial Orient Vasant Kaiwar presents a far reaching analysis of the political economic and ideological cross currents that have shaped and informed postcolonial studies preceding and following the 1989 moment of world history The valences of the post in postcolonialism are unfolded via some key historical political postcolonial texts showing inter alia that they are replete with elements of Romantic Orientalism and the Oriental Renaissance Kaiwar mobilises a critical body of classical and contemporary Marxism to demonstrate that far richer understandings of Europe not to mention colonialism modernity and difference are possible than with a postcolonialism captive to phenomenological existentialism and post structuralism concluding that a narrative so enriched is indispensable for a transformative non Eurocentric internationalism

Negotiating the Modern Amit Ray, 2007-01-22 This book explicates long standing literary celebrations of India and Indianness by charting a cultural history of Indianness in the Anglophone world locating moments in intellectual religious and cultural history where India and Indianness are offered up as solutions to modern moral ethical and political questions in the West Beginning in the early 1800s South Asians actively seek to occupy and modify spaces created by the scholarly discourses of Orientalism the study of the East Orient via Western European epistemological frameworks Tracing the varying fortunes of Orientalist scholars from the inception of British rule this study charts the work of key Indologists in the colonial era The rhetorical constructions of East and West deployed by both colonizer and colonized as well as attempts to synthesize or transcend such constructions became crucial to conceptions of the modern Eventually Indian desire for political sovereignty together with the deeply racialized formations of imperialism produced a shift in the dialogic relationship between South Asia and Europe that had been initiated and sustained by orientalists This impetus pushed scholarly discourse about India in Europe North America and elsewhere out of what had been a direct role in politics and theology and into high Literary culture

Asia in Europe, Europe in Asia Srilata Ravi, 2003-08-01 The book presents a unique combination of the study of contemporary and historical practices between Asia and Europe and brings forth some of the latest thinking on the subject Recent debates have centered primarily on contemporary aspects of the Europe Asia partnership in terms of international relations and economic linkages The present volume complements this political and economic interest in Europe Asia relationship by focusing on the academic social and cultural connections between the two regions The contributions in this volume have a contemporary focus but contextualize the themes within a historical perspective They deal with academic discourses on the region on modernity and entrepreneurship they discuss the long term exchange of knowledge in specific scientific fields and they focus on the cultural interconnections in the area of film literature and migration The originality of this book lies in its interdisciplinary approach to the question of Asia Europe and in its emphasis on the multifaceted complexity of the relationship between these two regions It brings together the diversity of local histories ideas and agencies in both Europe and Asia into a universal project of knowledge formation in order to reveal their contribution to the making of the world we are in Contributors Syed Farid Alatas Gregory Clancey John Kleinen Van Nguyen Marshall Henk Schulte Nordholt Paravin J Patel Maurizio Peleggi Satish Saberwal Vineeta Sinha Reassessing Orientalism Michael Kemper,Artemy M. Kalinovsky,2015-02-11 Orientalism as a concept was first applied to Western colonial views of the East Subsequently different types of orientalism were discovered but the premise was that these took their lead from Western style orientalism applying it in different circumstances This book on the other hand argues that the diffusion of interpretations and techniques in orientalism was not uni directional and that the different orientologies Western Soviet and oriental orientologies were interlocked in such a way that a change in any one of them affected the others that the different orientologies did not develop in isolation from each other and that importantly those being orientalised were active not passive players in shaping how the views of themselves were developed The New Asian Renaissance François Godement,1997 In the global race for growth the Asia Pacific region is emerging as the front runner This study provides a comprehensive history of today s East Asia tracing the essential stages in the rise of the region from its birth under colonial rule to the post Cold War period The New Asian Renaissance recounts the evolution of China Japan North South Korea Malaysia Singapore Burma the Philippines Thailand and Vietnam François Godement outlines the major forces that have led to the present economic political and social shape of East Asia Originally published in French this work is an essential tool for understanding the past present and future of a region that has become a significant actor in the international political economy Early Encounters Between East Asia and Europe Ralf Hertel,Michael Keevak,2017 Countering a tendency in scholarship to overlook unsuccessful encounters it starts from the assumption that failures can prove highly illuminating and provide valuable insights into both the specific shapes and limitations of East Asian and Western imaginations of the Other as well as of the nature of East West interaction Interdisciplinary in outlook this collection brings together the perspectives of sinology Japanese and Korean studies historical studies literary studies art history religious studies and performance studies The subjects discussed are manifold and range from missionary accounts travel reports letters and trade documents to fictional texts as well as material objects such as tea chinaware or nautical instruments exchanged between East and West In order to avoid a Eurocentric perspective the collection balances approaches from the fields of English literature Spanish studies Neo Latin studies and art history with those of sinology Japanese studies and Korean studies Regional Minorities and Development in East and Southeast Asia Elizabeth Morrell,2009
