Fundamental Financial Accounting Concepts 8th Edition:

Fundamental Financial Accounting Concepts Thomas P. Edmonds, Frances M. McNair, Philip R. Olds, 2013 This Valencia College edition of Fundamental Financial Accounting Concepts 8th Edition by Edmonds McNair Olds is designed for the undergraduate introductory financial accounting course specifically for those wanting to focus on the relationships between business events and financial statements This text is also appealing to those instructors looking for a shorter text that focuses more on key financial accounting concepts rather than procedural details and to those desiring a stronger user orientation in their course Overview Students are often overwhelmed by the amount of information presented in the introductory financial accounting course By focusing on fundamental concepts in a logical sequence students are able to fully comprehend the material rather than memorize seemingly unrelated terms and topics The goal of Fundamental Financial Accounting Concepts is to enable students to understand how any given business event affects the financial statements The financial statements model is a highly praised feature because it allows students to visualize the simultaneous impact of business events on all of the key financial statements the income statement the balance sheet and the statement of cash flows provided by publisher Financial Accounting: Reporting, Analysis and Decision Making, 8th Edition Shirley Carlon, Rosina McAlpine, Chrisann Lee, Lorena Mitrone, Lyndie Bayne, Ngaire Kirk, Lily Wong, 2025-11-24 The 8th edition of Financial Accounting Reporting Analysis and Decision Making offers a practical introduction to financial accounting It reflects the latest Australian Accounting Standards including IFRS 18 and addresses ESG sustainability ethics and corporate governance The focus is on interpreting and applying financial information in real world business and management decisions

Liberalising the Accounting Curriculum in University Education Alan Sangster, Richard M.S. Wilson, 2014-10-29 This book presents the views of accounting educators accounting education policy makers and accounting practitioners from across the world on the challenging topic of liberalising the accounting curriculum within university education Accounting is a relatively new subject within universities and has been absorbed into a high level of education without any real attempt to do so within the traditional ethos of a liberal arts education In this book the logic of teaching using the liberal arts is described and contrasted with the practical vocational training approach of teaching which has formed the foundation of accountancy courses for many years A proposal to change this established practice by integrating the liberal arts into the university accounting curriculum is followed by a series of short chapters which address the relevance validity and worthiness of the proposed approach Comments and counter arguments are then discussed before further chapters illustrate how the proposed change may be achieved in a variety of different contexts ranging from that of the global financial crisis which began in 2008 to the inclusion of ethics and sustainability within the accounting curriculum This book will aid those teaching accounting in universities to improve the design of their accounting degree programmes by moving away from an excessive emphasis on technical skills towards a broader consideration of a liberal contextualisation of the accounting curriculum This book was originally published as a special issue of Accounting Education an international journal
